

Ariah Park & District Farmer Field Day

Tuesday 22nd July

8.30am Ariah Park Footy Club Rooms

Morning in the footy club rooms, afternoon in the paddock

8.30 am Registration

- 9 am Update on Ariah Park soil moisture probes and recently installed weather stations. How you can access live local data. Tony Pratt Farmlink – What the moisture probes told us last year and current soil moisture status. Paul Hudson CropSol - Costs of installing probes & weather stations.
- 10 am Phil Bowden – The high presence of bugs in 2014 and what to be on the lookout for.
- 10.30 am Brent Bourke Precision Agriculture's pH mapping

Morning Tea

- 11 am James Hunt CSIRO – Yield forecasts and crop stages in relation to the season
- 11.45 am Josh Fisher WeatherZone – How weather predictions are generated and the outlook for the season

12.30 pm Lunch

- 1.30 pm Charlie Clemson Ardlethan – 1st April sowing trial of Bolac, Lancer, Wedgetail, Forrest & Gregory. Terry Edis (Elders) & James Hunt (CSIRO).
- 3 pm Brendan & Robert Foster Mirrool – Silo bag machines. Brett Phillips (Nendy Enterprises Gerogery - TBC) Mainero in/outloaders and Akron outloaders.
Lucerne and phalaris trials with legumes comparing establishment, dry matter, livestock performance and nitrogen value. Graeme Sandral (NSW DPI) & Jamie Pursehouse (Landmark).

4.30pm Conclude at Ariah Park Bowling Club

Cost: $20. Payments to be made prior to Farmlink Research Ltd BSB 062-557 Acc. 1007 3508. Include your name and MIRROOL in the payment.

$10 Mirrool Creek Farmer Group membership payable on the day with a membership prize draw.

If it is wet the event will still be on, bring gumboots. If it's a good spraying day feel free to attend either the morning or afternoon session.

For information on the day contact Robyn Buerckner 69732132 0429 366 374 mirroolcreek@gmail.com

RSVP to Cathie at Farmlink 69801333

cathie@farmlink.com.au

Wednesday 16th July

A.L. CHALMERS & SON

weatherzone^o

